SAGE CONTEST SETTLED; WILL

Widow Doubles the Bequests and Heirs Accept the Compromise.

LONG FIGHT AVOIDED.

More Than a Half Million.

The heirs of the late Russell Sage have abandoned the effort to break his will. They have accepted from Mrs. Sage out of her share of the estate an amount equal to their legacies.

ly other words, the sum left to each of the heirs by Mr. Sage has been doubled, instead of receiving $25,000 each the twenty-six nephews and nieces will each receive $50,000, and the three heirs to whom Mr. Sage left $6,250 each will each receive $12,500. Payment of the money will begin as soon as poscompromise, and the will was probated in the Surrogate's Court to-day without

Mrs. Sage advanced the offer of a compremise through her personal coun-sel, Henry W. De Forest. He submitted it to counsel for the Sage heirs at a conference last night. Benator Brackett of Saratoga, accepted it for his client eight-year-old Edson M. Coonrad. Troy, a great-grand-nephew of Mu Sage. The other lawyers accepted to

Will Quickly Probated.

All of the lawyers interested were present in the Probate Clerk's Office when the will was probated. Col. Brackett, Postmaster William R. Will-Stump registered appearances for cer-tain heirs. Other heirs who had been notified by publication that the will was to be probated to-day and did not put in an appearance were considered to have accepted the terms of the will

Robert W. and Henry W. Do Forest represented Mrs. Sage, and Charles R. Gardiner represented the executors. Mrs. Sage. Charles W. Osborn and Dr. Munn. Mr. Osborn and Dr. Munn were present, as were the two witnesses, R. W. Freed man and Edward Townsend. Both the witnesses said that they saw Mr. Sage sign the will, had known him for many years, and that at the time he affixed

his signature he was of sound mind. Here is the official announcement of Mrs. Sage's extra settlement on the hairs, which was posted by her counsel, De Forest Bros., in the office of the Probate Clerk titls afternoon; Notice of Settlement,

"Assuming no contest of Mr. Sage's will, Airs. Sage has intended and intends to give to each of Mr. Sage's relatives, baneficiaries under his will, an additional amount equal to his or her legacy, and to do this as soon as possible after her qualification as executrix. This intention has been stated by her counsed. Le Forest Bros., to such of the legatees as have made inquiry."

Senstor Brackett, Postmater Willcox and Mr. Bonney called at Mr. De Forest's office, No. 30 Broad street, before the opening of the Surrogate's Court to day to partect the agreement Senstor Brackett said to an Evening World reporter:

"On careful study of the situation in behalf of the child I represent the decision was reached late last night that a contest by my client was not advisable."

If the commonlye is satisfactory to life."

If the commomise is satisfactory to all the heirs probate of the will can be rushed and Mrs. Sage will be free to do as she likes with her $70.00.00.

It is not likely that any of the heirs who have not joined in the contest will object to taking twice as much groney as they expected to get from the Sage estate and the others will be guided, no doubt, by the advice of the lawyers who arranged the compromise last night.

law night.

Most of the heirs are people of adwanced are and of simple tastes. The Chelda heirs are comparatively well to do. The Western heirs are generally poor and $50,000 in one lump is an important assembly in their circumstances. Insamuch as a contest would the up the rooney it is not considered likely that they will take any further alegal in the direction of breaking the will.

Heirs of Saily Ann Sage Heirs of Saily Ann Sage. A sister of the Wall street money-king, is claimed by the executors of his will po have died when she was eleven years old, there were present three lawyers from Delaware County to-day when the will was probated representing five alleged grandchildren of the sister. The lawyers were A. L. Kellogs, of Oneonta, N. T., Edward O'Conner, of Hobert, N. T., and Alexander Neise, of Walton.

The Delaware County legal force of that her first numbers of the five grand-nephrows and grand-neleoss who were overlooked by Mr. Sage." said Mr. O'Conner. "By so doing we comply with the law. Later we expect to prove the relation-whip of our clients and get for them their share of the estate.

The Delaware County legal force delains that instead of dying at eleven. Saily Ann Sage lived to an advanced age; that her first husband was a manuscaned Darling and that atterward she married a man named Louvien, by whom she had five children, one of whom wees Julieting Parling. The left-make say that this Julietts Darling married Louvier, Still well and had five children themselves. Their names are Margaret Crary, Oscar Still well and had five children Stalivell, all of Hobsar, Delaware County, N. T.
